

Generate an Annotated Bibliography from Zotero in Chicago Manual of Style

(an as-needed task in three steps, with pictures)

1. In Zotero, right-click on an item or collection of items in your library (Use  $\mathbb{H}$ -click on a Mac) and choose "Generate bibliography from item" (or "Generate bibliography from collection").

2. Choose your desired style, and select "Bibliography" and "Copy to clipboard."

3. Open your word processor and paste the contents of your clipboard.
